

Library of Virginia Coaching Program Application

The Library of Virginia is offering a coaching program for library staff. We are currently accepting applications for both coaches and people who wish to be coached. We are limiting the number of people who will be accepted into the program.

Coaches will be expected to attend two-day training, participate in follow up activities and attend a half-day session will follow in November.

For more information see: <http://vpl.virginia.gov/youth-services/coaching-workshop/>

Applications for people who wish to coach or be coached should be mailed, faxed, or emailed to:

Enid Costley
Children's and Youth Services Consultant
Library of Virginia
800 East Broad Street
Richmond, Virginia 23219
