“Not Just For Young Adults” Book Group

Monday, April 11 at 7:30pm

Ink and Bone: The Great Library by Rachel Caine.

In a world where the Great Library of Alexandria governs the flow of information to the people, Jess discovers that those who control the Library believe that knowledge is more valuable than human life.

Daytimers Book Group

Tuesday, April 19 at 1:30pm

Go Set a Watchman by Harper Lee.

It features many of the characters from To Kill a Mockingbird some twenty years later. Returning home to Maycomb to visit her father, Jean Louise Finch (Scout) struggles with issues both personal and political.

GPL Mystery Book Group

Tuesday, April 19 at 7:30pm

What's So Funny? by Donald E. Westlake.

Tempted to find a highly valuable, seven-hundred-pound chess set, hapless crook John Dortmund musters his merry band of fellow ne'er-do-wells on a haphazard treasure hunt that prompts his investigation of Russia's last czar.

“Reads Well with Others” Adult Book Group

Monday, April 25 at 7:30pm

The Bookman's Tale by Charles Lovett.

After the death of his wife, Peter Byerly, a young antiquarian bookseller, relocates from the States to the English countryside, and discovers a Victorian portrait strikingly similar to his wife, in the pages of a book, and becomes obsessed with tracking down its origins.

Inspirational Book Club

Tuesday, April 26 at 7:30pm.

Let's Pretend This Never Happened by Jenny Lawson.

Lawson's long-suffering husband and sweet daughter help her uncover the surprising discovery that the most terribly human moments, the ones we want to pretend never happened, are the very same moments that make us the people we are today.
