2016's Newbery Winner Matt de la Peña - Meet the 2016 Newbery Award winning and New York Times bestselling author Matt De La Pena. Matt has written six critically acclaimed young adult novels, and most recently he has written Last Stop on Market Street, which won the Newbery Award this year. The Newbery is awarded annually to the author of the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children. Matt will talk about his writings and discuss his views on the saving powers of literacy and creativity. Light refreshments will be served.

Adult Coloring Drop-In - Drop in any time during the week to pick up your coloring pages.

Art Therapy: See What You Can Do With Paint and Tape! - Come create a beautiful piece of wall art with a little bit of tape and paint. Supplies are limited, so we operate on a first come, first served basis. Ages 16-100.

Basic Computer Class, Part 2 - Learn how to use a mouse and turn on your computer. Registration is required. For more information or to register for the class, call or visit the Salem branch.

Bingo! - Enjoy an evening of gaming and prizes. Refreshments will be served.

Computer Basics Class - Overwhelmed by computers and other forms of technology? Join us to learn the basics! Feel free to bring any personal devices about which you'd like to learn so we can tailor the lesson to your needs.

Crafty Teens: Black-Out Poetry - By using old books, newspapers, and magazines, new works of art can be brought to life. Join us as we honor National Poetry Month with our own unique poetry. Teens only, please.

Earth Day - Step into the pages of Dr. Seuss's The Lorax and celebrate Earth Day with us!

Earth Day Craft: Water Bottle Fish - April 22nd is Earth Day. Let's celebrate by making a recycled craft. Create your very own unique fish from a water bottle. Program is appropriate for ages 5-12.

Engineering With Kids: Jellybean Structures - What can you create with only jellybeans and toothpicks? Towers, blocks, other structures...the possibilities are endless! This program is appropriate for ages 6-12.

Kid's Crafternoon: Bookmarks - In honor of National Library Week, we invite parents to bring their children for a fun bookmark craft. There will be markers, crayons, stickers, and more to help your child make a bookmark masterpiece.

Knit & Crochet Circle - Enjoy conversation and camaraderie as we stitch! Bring your work in progress. Beginners will be provided with hands on help to get them unstuck.

Let's Get Crafty: Pallet Art - Get hands-on with a free pallet art tutorial— we'll be painting and sharing tips. Supplies will be provided on a first come, first served basis. This program is for those 16 years of age and older.

LTAI - We will be discussing Daisy Miller by Henry James.

LTAI Movie Night - We will be watching Daisy Miller, a 1974 film starring Cybil Shepherd.

Movie Matinee: The Hunger Games: Mockingjay, Part 2 - (PG-13) Bring your family to watch the exciting fourth and final installment of the Hunger Games series. Refreshments will be served.

Page Turners Teen Book Club - Join us for this month's selection: A Night Divided by Jennifer A. Nielsen. This program is appropriate for ages 12-18.

Poetry Creation Station - During the entire month of April, drop by the Salem branch to create your own poetry.

Sandwiches & Cinema - Let's get ready for baseball season with Moneyball, starring Brad Pitt. Bring your lunch and enjoy the show!

Time to Read - This month's book will be Inside the O'Briens by Lisa Genova. Light refreshments will be served.

Vinyl Confessions - Calling all teen poets, DJs, and musicians to celebrate National Poetry Month. Come out to our new spoken word/vinyl appreciation program to work on your poetry/spoken word, to collaborate with others, and to share your interests while listening to some vinyl records on the turntable. If you play an acoustic instrument bring it and share your music as well. For the month of April, we will listen to David Bowie's Diamond Dogs LP, which features Bowie's own spoken word that has often been compared to the style of Beat poet William S. Burroughs. Ages 12-19 only, please.

All programs are free and open to the public.
